

Live-In Home Care Provider Needed for Senior with 24/7 Monitoring Needs (Cottonwood Heights, UT)

Are you a compassionate and dedicated individual seeking a fulfilling role caring for a wonderful senior?

We are looking for a live-in home care provider for my aging mother in Cottonwood Heights, Utah. She is 77 years old, a wonderful and kind person, and requires assistance with most daily activities. This includes meal preparation, light housekeeping, medication reminders, and 24/7 monitoring. She also needs help with transfers (getting in and out of bed) and personal hygiene. We will need 24/7 live-in care, but that doesn't mean you won't have time to yourself. She sleeps most of the time and other family members will be available when you need time to yourself.

The ideal candidate will:

- Possess a minimum of one (1) year of experience as a home caregiver or experience as a CNA working with seniors in an assisted living environment.
- Have a strong work ethic, be reliable, and possess excellent communication skills.
- Be compassionate, patient, and able to build a positive relationship with my mother and us as a family.
- Be physically able to assist with daily tasks, including meal preparation, light housekeeping, ambulation/mobility assistance, laundry, stand by shower assist, occasional incontinence needs, and errands/shopping/transportation to appointments.
- Fluency in English
- A valid driver's license, verifiable references, and a clean background check are required.
- Certified Nursing Assistant Certification is a plus, but not required!

We offer:

- Reasonable living wage with room and board in a beautiful home.
- Room and Board included - Comfortable private living space within our home and food provided.
- The opportunity to make a real difference in the life of a kind and appreciative senior and our family.
- Flexibility for time off especially during the holidays, arranged when family can provide care.
