

English as a Second Language
Teaching Minor/Endorsement
Weber State University

The English as a Second Language teaching minor/endorsement is available at Weber State University. Undergraduate and graduate students seeking degrees in elementary, secondary or special education can add this endorsement to their licensure.

The required courses are as follows:

WSU Course number	Course title	Term(s) offered
Educ 4250/MED 6250 (3 credits)	Second Language Acquisition: Theories and Implementation	Fall (each year) Summer (odd years)
Educ 4270/MED 6270 (3 credits)	Literacy Strategies for Teaching English Language Learners	Spring (each year) Summer (even numbered years)
Educ 4740 (1 credit)  or  MED 6240 (2 credits)	Building Partnerships with ESL/Bilingual Families  Foundations of Teaching for Cultural and Language Differences	Spring, Summer
Engl 4410/ MENG 6410* (3 credits)  * FL 4400 may be substituted for this course, especially for foreign language majors and dual language immersion endorsement candidates	Strategies and Methodology of Teaching ESL	Spring (each year) Summer (odd numbered years)
Engl 4420/MENG 6420 (3 credits)	English Phonology and Syntax for ESL Teachers	Summer (each year) Fall (odd numbered years)
Engl 4450/MENG 6450 (3 credits)	ESL/Bilingual Assessment: Theories, Methods and Practices	Fall (each year) (Summer even numbered years)
Educ 5770 (2 credits)	Field Experience in ESL/Bilingual Education	Fall, Spring

(updated December 2017)

For more information contact:

Kristin Radulovich
kradulovich@weber.edu
ED 230
(801) 626-6309

Brogan Stampick
broganstampick@weber.edu
ED 230A
(801) 626-6636

Dr. David R. Byrd
davidbyrd@weber.edu
ED 322
(801) 626-7412